

Catedral-Basílica de Santa Maria de Mallorca
etherland
ES.L.M.P.1

Catedral-Basílica de Santa Maria de Mallorca

Description

Overlooking the Palma bay in Spain, next to the Almudaina palace, the Cathedral of Mallorca is the second largest religious building in Spain. Its construction began in 1229 and ended centuries later, in 1601. Designed in a Gothic Catalan style, the cathedral was shaped by various artists like painters, sculptors, workers and architects throughout the years.

Metadata

- City: Palma
- Country: Spain
- Cadastral Number: ES.L.M.P.1
- GPS Coordinates: 39.5674° N, 2.6483° E
- Landmarks: Monuments
- Floor Surface in Square Meters: 6600