

 Shoreham Power Station
etherland GB.CS.EN.S.1

Shoreham Power Station

Description

Opened in 2000, the Shoreham power station runs on natural gas and provides a total power of 420 MWe. Located in Southwick, England, it was built on the site of an old coal station, Brighton B. The project cost £ 150 million and since February 2021 has been owned by VPI Holdings Ltd.

Metadata

- Common Services And Infrastructures: Energy
- City: Southwick
- Country: England
- Cadastral Number: GB.CS.EN.S.1
- GPS Coordinates: 50.8300° N, 0.2315° W