

Mount Everest

Description

Located between Nepal and Tibet and named after British surveyor Sir George Everest, the Mount Everest stands 8,849 meters tall as the highest mountain on the planet. Even though over 300 people died on its flanks since the early expeditions of the 1920s, many climbers still challenge themselves and try to reach the summit every year.

Metadata

- City: Arkhale
- Country: Nepal
- GPS Coordinates: 27.9881° N, 86.9250° E
- Landmarks: Natural Wonders
- Cadastral Number: N.P.L.NW.A.1