

Nazaré

Description

Known as a seaside resort in Portugal, Nazaré finds its potential in generating monstrous waves for surfing. The underwater canyon increases and converges the incoming wave rays with the local currents. The height of waves multiplies, forming high-breaking surges and making this place very popular in big wave surfing. The highest wave recorded here reached 24.4 meters, setting a Guinness World Record at the same time.

Metadata

- Country: Portugal
- GPS Coordinates: 39.3554°N, 9.0502°W
- City: Nazaré
- Landmarks: Natural Wonders
- Cadastral Number: PT.L.NW.N.1