

 Bwindi Impenetrable National Park
etherland UG.L.PG.B.3

Bwindi Impenetrable National Park

Description

Located in southwestern Uganda, the Bwindi Impenetrable National Park is named after the Bwindi Impenetrable Forest. Marking the border with the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the forest covers most of the park's area. Though rich in biodiversity, mountain gorillas are the most representative species inhabiting the park.

Metadata

- City: Buhoma
- Country: Uganda
- GPS Coordinates: 1.0521° S, 29.6201° E
- Landmarks: Parks & Gardens
- Land Surface in Square Kilometers: 331
- Cadastral Number: UG.L.PG.B.3